RasMoses, originally from New York City, is now based in Colorado (Ganjahrado) USA. He is a signed international recording artist, author, public speaker, healing practitioner and acting President of Colorado House of Rastafari non-profit organization 501c3.

RasMoses has traveled from Ethiopia to India chanting in the Himalayas to the Nyahbinghi Tabernacles in the hills of Jamaica and Shashamene. He has shared stages in America, St. Croix, Kenya and Jamaica with international artists and bands such as Black Uhuru, Capelton, Anthony B, Lutan Fyah, Everton Blender, Coco Tea, Richie Spice, Koffee, Kabaka Pyramid, Julian Marley, Harry Mo, Machet and The Meditations.

He is a lead chanter of Reggae Powerhouse Band out of Jamaica and a signed solo artist with Rebel Sound Records. Additionally, he is a founding member of the Colorado Binghista performing group.

RasMoses performed at Bob Marley's 74th Birthday Celebration in Kingston which was viewed by 6.8 million by live stream and to over 2,000 attendees at the Bob Marley Museum at 56 Hope Road (the only American artist represented).

His highly anticipated full-length album Seek JAH First was distributed to six continents in March 2020 and is available on all digital platforms.
